

CSS2 - LIST PROPERTIES

http://www.tutorialspoint.com/css/css_list_references.htm

Copyright © tutorialspoint.com

This is a complete reference guide for web developers where we have listed all the CSS properties related to list defined in the World Wide Web Consortium's Recommended Specification for Cascading Style Sheets, Level 2.

Click any property to see its description with examples –

Property	Description
list-style	Defines list-related styles using any of the values for – - list-style-image - liststyle-position - list-style-type
list-style-image	Defines an image to be used as a list item's marker, in lieu of the value for – list-style-type list-style-position	Indents or extends default a list item's marker with respect to the item's content.
list-style-type	Defines a list item's marker either for unordered lists circle , disc , orsquare or for ordered lists decimal , loweralpha , lower – roman , none , upper – alpha , orupper – roman .

Loading [MathJax]/jax/output/HTML-CSS/jax.js