

What is Process Cycle Test?

Process cycle Test, a black box test design technique in which test cases are designed to execute business scenarios.

Process Cycle Test Steps:

- Establishing path combinations.
- Choice for test measure.
- Establishing paths.
- Specifying tests.
- Establishing the initial data set.
- Integrating the test script.