What is System Under Test SUT?

System under test SUT refers to a system that is being validated by the testers. The terminology is also known as application under test.

The System Under Test SUT also corresponds to a software that is matured and has gone through unit and integration testing.